Overview

TAE40122 Certificate IV in Training and Assessment
Cost: $ 5500 (GST free)
Delivery: Classroom – Jandakot

The Aveling Approach

Aveling believes in an experiential and practical learning approach where you are able to apply what you learn as you go. This reinforces your learning and ensures you develop knowledge and skills that last when you go back to the workplace.

This course has been designed with a real-world focus. Engage in hands-on assessments, collaborate on projects and develop a deep understanding of adult learning principles. The program covers learning design, assessment strategies, learner engagement techniques and technology in training, guided by experienced practitioners.

This program will suit those who aim to be a workplace trainer, vocational educator or enhance instructional skills.

Course Details

Aveling's TAE40122 Certificate IV in Training and Assessment has four (4) sessions. You can undertake the sessions in any order, or as needed, but the recommended order for those new to training is listed below. All four sessions must be successfully completed to achieve the qualification.

Classroom sessions take place at our purpose-built training facility in Jandakot between 8:00am and 4:00pm, You are required to arrive at our training facility by 7:45am for registration. You'll have time to grab a coffee or snack from our café and familiarise yourself with your learning environment prior to the class commencing.

With each classroom learning session, you will be provided with an assessment to complete in your own time. You will have three months to complete this assessment, see table in Assessment section below for further details.

Further information on the USI can be obtained at www.usi.gov.au.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)

RPL is a process that assesses your skills and knowledge (which may have been acquired through formal and informal learning) to determine if you meet the requirements for a unit of competency.

If you've already received training in a particular area, worked in a position that's enabled you to undertake industry relevant tasks, or simply been trained in-house through your organisation, you may be eligible to apply for RPL for a unit of competency.

Although it is not necessarily a quick or simple process, Aveling aims to provide applicants with a more flexible way of having their abilities, skills and knowledge assessed against the competencies in qualifications and nationally recognised units of competency.

For more information on RPL for one or more of the units in the TAE40122 Certificate IV in Training and Assessment, please contact us on +61 8 9379 9999 or email training@aveling.com.au.

Fees and charges

All courses require payment to be made at time of booking. Payment is made for each session during the booking process. Companies may provide a purchase order number if prior approval has been granted by Aveling.

- All cancellations or variations to course bookings must be received in writing by emailing training@aveling.com.au within the timeframes specified in the Cancellation and Refund Policy.
- Non-attendance at any public course will incur an administration cost equivalent to the full course cost.
- An alternate person may be substituted prior to the commencement of the course at no additional cost.
- There is no refund to learners who are deemed 'Not Yet Competent' after the assessment.
- Please refer to Aveling's Cancellation and Refund Policy for cancellation information for specific courses and locations.
- As a learner, you have the right to a refund for services not provided. Aveling reserves the right to cancel any course. Should this occur, the payee is entitled to a full refund or re-schedule of training (if available) at no extra charge. Aveling will not be liable for any claims arising from course cancellation.
- Should Aveling be unable to provide a course or agreed service for any reason, or have to terminate the arrangement early, a refund of fees paid for services not provided will be given to the learner by Aveling. Learners who have already been assessed as competent for some units will be issued a Statement of Attainment for these units and the costs of issuing the Statement(s), including training, assessment and administration fees, will be deducted from the refund total.
- No certification will be issued until relevant fees and charges have been paid in full.
- Re-issuing of transcripts is free of charge is sent electronically.

Assessment

The assessment is designed to assess your understanding of the skills and knowledge needed to address the key requirements for the qualification and in a workplace. This course includes in-class and workplace assessments, designed to solidify your classroom learning. You will complete assessments based on simulated case study scenarios after the classroom sessions.

This course includes in-class assessments, knowledge questions and workplace assessments for the units. The questions enable you to provide evidence your understanding of the knowledge requirements of the associated units of competency, while the workplace assessments provide an opportunity for you to demonstrate your practical training skills in within the workplace.

While the timing will vary for each individual learner, we estimate that you will need to spend 5-10 hours per week to complete the assessments between the classroom session.

The below table indicates which assessment methods are used for each unit of competency included in the qualification.

Assessment attempts

You will have three attempts to achieve competency. Failure to submit by the due date counts as an attempt.

If your first assessment attempt is not satisfactory you may be contacted by your assessor for minor clarifications, or you may receive an email from our assessment team detailing the further work that is needed.

You will only be required to resubmit the part(s) of your assessment that your assessor marked as unsatisfactory. Please contact your assessor to clarify any additional evidence requirements, the feedback provided or to request additional support. You will be advised of the due date to submit your reassessment / additional evidence at this time. Failure to submit by the advised due date will count as an attempt.

If after three attempts, you are deemed as 'Not Yet Competent', further training may be required.

Learner support

If you are experiencing any challenges that may impact your learning or progress, we encourage you to contact Aveling as early as possible. Whether you need additional support, are facing personal or study-related difficulties, or wish to discuss circumstances that may affect your training, our team is here to help. We encourage you to disclose any support needs so we can work with you to explore reasonable solutions and assist your learning experience to be positive and successful.

Aveling provides two-hour group support workshops facilitated by an Aveling trainer and assessor, run regularly at our Jandakot venue. Three (3) support workshop sessions are included for free with each Nationally Recognised course you are enrolled in.

Additional support can be arranged, if needed, at a cost of $120 per hour.

Places on each session are limited so bookings are essential. Call +61 8 9379 9999 to book your place.
